ITINERARY

D1 Vancouver → Butchart Gardens → China Town → Victoria Inner Harbour → Beacon Hill Park → Mile 0

In the morning, take the B.C. Ferries (admission is included) and travel via the Strait of Georgia to Victoria, the capital of British Columbia. Explore the 50-acre, over-100-year-old Butchart Gardens (admission is included). Pass through Chinatown, which has the narrowest commercial street on the island, Fan Tan Alley, and then go to the inner harbor area of Victoria, where you can visit the Fairmont Empress and the historic neo-baroque BC Parliament Buildings. Then head to Mile Zero, the starting point of the over 8,000 km Trans-Canada Highway. Overnight in Victoria.

D2 Victoria → Hatley Castle → Malahat SkyWalk → Chemainus → Vancouver

Head to Hatley Castle, a Classified Federal Heritage Building which is a century-old military academy. After that, check in to the Vancouver Island's newest attraction - Malahat Skywalk (Optional), along the 600-meter-long elevated walk, to the observation deck for a 360° view of the island. Then stop at Chemainus, which has the most murals in the world, the town is painted with delicate wall paintings from all over the world, therefore known as "City of Murals". After visiting Chemainus, take the BC ferries back to Vancouver and end the two-day trip.
